

Dist. Prof. Patsy Yates, PhD, RN, FACN, FAAN

Head of School, Faculty of Health - Nursing

Distinguished Professor Patsy Yates, PhD, RN, FACN, FAAN is jointly appointed as Head, School of Nursing at Queensland University of Technology, Lead Researcher for the Cancer Nursing Professorial Precinct at Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital, and Director for Queensland Health's statewide Centre for Palliative Care Research and Education (CPCRE). She has over 30 years' experience in research, education and clinical practice in cancer and palliative care with a strong commitment to consumer engagement in research. She is the immediate Past-President of Palliative Care Australia and is President of the International Society of Nurses in Cancer Care. Patsy is a Fellow of the American Academy of Nursing and has been inducted into the Sigma Theta Tau International Nurse Researcher Hall of Fame.